EPE Association
Membership Information

In previous years, EPE Association was able to invoice an EPE Journal subscription at member rate. By doing so, EPE Association could apply 6% instead of 21% of VAT (which is of application for memberships).

From 2016 on, the EPE journal is published by Taylor & Francis.

The publishing company Taylor and Francis has the exclusive right to sell subscriptions to the EPE Journal, EPE Association may since only sell "Memberships" to the Association. (Such a membership however includes a subscription to the EPE Journal. So, the members will still receive the EPE Journal).

EPE Association asked its accountant for information concerning the application of the VAT on memberships and was informed that for memberships, EPE Association has to apply the Belgian VAT (21%) on invoices issued to customers who are not VAT registered.

As the membership is personal now, EPE Association has to issue the invoice to your private address with 21% VAT.

We thank you for your understanding.

Best regards,

The EPE Association secretariat
