

Too much? Too far? Too ...?

When the news is filled with abused and murdered children or women, with war, abandoned refugees, unemployment, helpless families, misery, all over the world, we MUST find some time to sit back and reflect upon the reality.

Are we doing the right things?

There is a French poem that goes:
"When they arrested the communists, I did not react as I am not a communist

When they arrested the Jews, I did not react as I am not a Jew
When they knocked at my door, there was nobody left to protest."

Spring is there, new energy wakes up. An empty page and 5 seconds to reflect on our deeds.

May we find the strenght to put things right.
