

— Foreword —

---

Dear reader of the EPE Journal

In 1994 EPE Association will continue its activities and the publication of EPE Journal. For members of EPE Association the subscription of EPE Journal will remain to be included in the membership fee.

Please continue to give your support to this European initiative that has been developing so well over past years. The EPE Conferences are now the largest international conferences on Power Electronics and related subjects, representing the leading edge in this rapidly evolving field of technology.

The only way to get in touch with all the EPE activities is to become a member of the EPE Association.